WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this fair; warmer; winds shifting to southerly.

COMMITTEE MEETING.—The democratic committee of the city and county had a meeting last night in the Market building. All the members of the city committee were present except Mr. Wilkins, of the First ward. Two of the county committee were present, as were also all the candidates for the House of Delegates who presented their claims before the primary held on Tuesday. Mr. Sweeney, chairman of the city committee, presided and stated that the object of the meeting was to fix a date on which the convention should be held, and also to decide upon a plan of representation in the convention.

It was suggested that the calculations made by the democratic committee be adopted as the basis for the scale of vote for each candidate. This gives Mr. Barley 10 delegates, Mr. Bendheim 6, Mr. May 5, and Mr. Lipscomb 2, and with the following numerical strength in the convention: Barley 992; Bendheim 630; May 481 and Lipscomb 216. These are the same figures as published in the GAZETTE yesterday. This calculation gave rise to a long discussion and several other plans of determining the number of votes each candidate is entitled to were suggested, some of the candidates wanting the city and county vote to be counted separately and others wanting both counted as a whole, but finally the committee's figures were adopted, which counts the county and city as one legislative district.

A discussion then arose as to the date of the convention, some wanting one day and others another. Finally it was agreed that the convention should be held at Sarepta Hall at 12:30 o'clock on Saturday next.

On motion of Mr. Lipscomb each candidate is to write a letter to the clerk of the court giving the necessary legal notice of his candidacy, so that it can be filed the required twenty days before the election. It was understood that all but the successful would subsequently withdraw such notice.

Each candidate will appoint his delegates to the convention, and it will require 1160 votes to make the nomination. As neither candidate has this number of votes at command at present, there are opportunities for combinations, and there is no certainty as to who will be the nominee of the convention.

Mr. Barley has named his delegates as follows: T. L. Cockrell, C. H. Yohe, C. C. Carlin, G. W. Bontz, S. G. Brent, H. Strauss, Frank Price, L. Marbury, G. G. Brent and F. F. Marbury. The other candidates have not yet named their delegates, but it is understood that among Mr. May's will be Messrs. W. F. Vincent, G. L. Simpson and J. B. Watkins.

RECEPTION TO GENERAL LONGSTREET.—The reception tendered Gen. James Longstreet, the only surviving ex-Confederate general of the Southern army, last evening by the Confederate Veterans' Association, of Washington, was a brilliant gathering of all Southerners who make their home in the District of Columbia and many distinguished southern guests from other cities. Fully 500 persons greeted the gallant hero of many battles, who answered their cordial hand grasp with the pressure of appreciative friendship.

Orme Hall, corner E and Eleventh streets, which was tendered by the owner for the affair, was brilliantly illuminated and everywhere flags and draperies of bunting hung by the fair hands of the Ladies' Southern Relief Association flanked their brilliant hues and palms and bright flowers added their beauty. Gen. Longstreet was assisted in receiving by Dr. J. A. Maloney, president of the Confederate Veterans' Association, and ladies of the Relief Association. General Longstreet was too feeble to speak and General Heth spoke for him. He paid high tribute to the "Wheel Horse" of the Army of Northern Virginia and spoke of him as saving both his own and General Wilcox's divisions from total destruction by his timely arrival of May 6, 1864. General Longstreet made a short address and the reception closed with dancing. There were over three hundred people present. Messrs. Edgar Warfield, S. C. Boush and others of Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, of this city, were present.

PERSONAL.—Miss Marion Herbert is visiting her cousins, the Messrs. Herbert, in Baltimore.

Miss Nettie G. Schaff, daughter of Mrs. Martha Schaff, formerly of this city, and Mr. Harry C. Feby, of Falls Church, were married yesterday afternoon at Waugh M. E. Church, Washington. Rev. J. A. Knott, of Epworth League M. E. Church South, performed the ceremony, which occurred at 5:30 o'clock. The wedding music was rendered by Mr. Sherman B. Fowler. The ushers were Mr. Sherman, Edward Talbot, Charles H. Schaff, Charles Wolf and James J. Hudson. The bride wore a handsome gown of dark brown cloth, tastefully trimmed with rose pink velvet, her hat of rose and black velvet, being wreathed in black ostrich plumes. The bridal bouquet was of maroon and white roses, tied with long loops of white satin ribbon. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Feby left for Falls Church, where they will make their home.

Rev. Mr. Jenkins, of Danville, is in the city on business.

Mr. Silas Ledman, of this city, and his bride, formerly Miss Emma E. Goodwin, of Richmond, have arrived home from a wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hulshah, who were married recently in Alexandria, arrived in Charlottesville, on Tuesday, from their wedding tour.—Charlottesville Progress.

AN EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE.—"A Spanish Romance," given last night by Mabel Paige and her excellent company, created roars of laughter and, as usual, H. Guy Woodward and his wife, Bessie Warren, shared the honors with Miss Paige. To-night she will appear as "The Little Hussar," a character in which the Atlanta papers lavished the most abundant praise on her acting. H. Guy Woodward also has one of the most comical parts he yet undertaken.

Mrs. Davis, wife of Police Officer Keith Davis, is seriously ill.

Various matters in connection with the police force were discussed.

BIG SCHEME.—For some days past there have been rumors of "a big scheme" to be launched in this city. Developments are awaited.
